Mexican Commander Fears Real Battle

S AN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 27. The Babe Picato-Frankie Kirk lightweight fight, schedfor to-morrow at Tia Juana, Mexico, has been called off. The Mexican commander at the border town was told that several thousand persons would flock over to see the bout and he became frightened for fear rebels would seek this chance to overpower his fifty soldiers. He demanded that the promoters pay for 500 additional soldiers to guard him in his brick fort. They refused.
